

CUT SECTION OF PUMPS

MODEL: CUT09

FEATURES

- Colour-coded system for better understanding
- Stand mounted for better ergonomics

DESCRIPTION

Our models facilitate thorough understanding because they are actual systems, apart from being life-sized. All details of construction and working of every component are clearly exposed. Different working systems are colored differently to make learning easier. All systems are operational, thereby ensuring that their working can be demonstrated effectively.

The cut section is so taken as to expose internal working parts. This will help teacher explain the components better.
